Standardizing Of Supplies To Bring Savings

County Group Named To Decide on Type Of Commodities

No matter what decision is rendered in the Stanley Kelly case, Executive E. A. Rolison will proceed with improvements in the county purchasing system, he announced Tuesday.

He submitted a letter to the board of supervisors Tuesday announcing the appointment of a standards committee, composed of nine county department heads, to standardize commodities in common use.

Function of the committee, he said, will be to agree on standardization of commonly used supplies in order that the county may buy these supplies in larger quantities to enjoy larger discounts on volume purchases.

At the present time, he pointed out, many departments have predictions for various brands of the same items, resulting in an unduly large number of purchase requisitions.

A. C. Fensel, accounting expert for the California Taxpayers' Association, pointed out that Sacramento county, with a population 80 per cent larger than San Mateo county, used only 6000 purchase orders for fiscal 1936 compared to 5000 in San Mateo county. He hopes to reduce the number of requisitions in this county, he said.

Meanwhile, Rolison announced, two secretaries formerly employed in the purchasing department are carrying on the work of the new county buying department in his office.

Purposes of the Standards Committee as outlined by Rolison are: (1) to permit larger volume purchases at a limited number of items at decreased prices; (2) reduction of stores to avoid stock-room losses; (3) reduction of administrative overhead; (4) to supply departments with supplies of their own selection; (5) drafting

Mrs. Ryan Leaves Humane Group Post

Following announcement Tuesday night by Mrs. J. E. Ryan, president of the Redwood City Humane Society that she was moving for several months to Los Angeles, Mrs. C. H. Wakefield, vice president, today assumed the duties of acting president.

Mrs. Ryan told members of the society, gathered at her home on Arlington road, that she and her husband, John E. Ryan, and their two children, John E. Jr., and May Frances, were to remain in the South until summer.

Mrs. Wakefield announced the next meeting of the society for January 28 at her home on Palomar drive, Palomar Park, when the preliminary outline of this year's annual Pet Show in May will be whipped into shape.

Assisting Mrs. Wakefield on the committee will be Councilman Evans A. Fletcher and Henry Witte, as well as other society members, she said.

Tuberculosis is the chief cause of death among Alaskan natives. New York City's tax collections exceed $600,000,000 a year.

Four-fifths of the productive forest area of the United States is privately owned.

Specifications which will require very as specified in orders, and use of the specifications to competing vendors on an equal footing to give the county favorable prices.

Once the supplies are standardized, Fensel pointed out, the service division's bookkeeping machine will pick up the quantities of each item used in the past year as a basis for ordering.

Members of the Standards Committee, which will be called into session at an early date, are Miss Pansy Jewett Abbott, superintendent of schools; Mrs. Ona Wise, juvenile home superintendent; William Augustus, county clerk; U. S. Marshall, county engineer; E. W. Clapp, Community Hospital business manager; J. J. McGrath, heriff; Bert L. Werder, fire warden; J. R. Eubanks, relief home superintendent, and James Packwood, service division aide, to act as secretary of the committee.

The purchasing department is now studying office supply requirements of the school department and the county offices, Rolison said, and expects to be able to make necessary purchases at a saving to the county.

Petitions Out Against ROTC In High School

Minister Group Also Tells School Board Of Opposition

Opposition to the offering of military training in Sequoia high school was beyond the "talk stage" today.

Petitions, sponsored by the Ministerial Union of Redwood City, are being signed for presentation to the high school board of trustees, opposing the introduction of a unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps in the school, even on an optional or voluntary basis.

The petitions were placed on Sunday in the churches of those pastors belonging to the association, and may be signed by contacting any of the pastors—C. H. Gatchell, First Baptist Church, president of the association; William J. Owen, First Methodist Episcopal Church, secretary; Charles E. Ward, First Congregational Church, and Schuyler Pratt, St. Peter's Episcopal Church. Two of the pastors, Mr. Pratt and Mr. Owen, are members of Redwood City Post 165, American Legion, sponsors of the move to form the ROTC unit at Sequoia.

In addition to sponsoring the petitions, the ministerial union under date of January 7 addressed a communication to the school board asking it "to deny the request for the installation of the ROTC unit at Sequoia Union High School."

The proposal, advanced again last month after having been rejected by the school board three years ago, is due for an airing at the board's next meeting the night of January 21.

In the ministerial union's letter to the school board it is pointed out that "the proposal to introduce a unit of the ROTC in the Sequoia Union High School raises certain fundamental questions of national policy, both in the field of national defense and of education."

It continues: "We agree with those who propose this measure, that an adequate national defense is necessary. At the same time we reaffirm the positions taken by our several national church assemblies condemning the entire war system."

"On the advisability of ROTC units in high schools, we agree with the military, congressional, educational and religious leaders, whose opposition is expressed in the following statements:

"Lieutenant Colonel Richards of the West Point Military Academy speaks for the military, saying: 'The military training given in high schools is of no value whatever, in preparation for war.'"

"Congressman Ross A. Collins, of Mississippi, when a member of the house sub-committee on appropriations for military affairs, said:

"Common sense will tell the ordinary man that some drill sergeant who may have had no other training than his experience in the army, is not as well fitted to teach students, as the men and women who spend years preparing themselves in our regular colleges and normal schools. Our military system makes no provision for preparing officers or men for public school or college teaching."

"The National Education Association is on record as follows: 'It is often claimed that military training offers the best method of training pupils in obedience, promptness, truthfulness and other desirable habits. Those engaged in the work of education are practically unanimous in asserting that those claims have no justification.'"

"Finally, we call attention to the fact that, among many others, the following national religious bodies are on record as being opposed to having the War Department in our public schools: The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the Northern Baptist Convention, the National Council of Congregational and Christian Churches, the Central Conference of Jewish Rabbis, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Presbyterian General Assembly, the Disciples of Christ.

"Therefore, we respectfully request your board, to deny the request for the installation of the ROTC unit at Sequoia Union High School."

Elections Slated In County, State, Cities This Year

San Mateo county's share in the 1938 primary and general elections is a large one, according to the list of officers to be elected, the important election dates, and the other election data gathered by County Clerk William Augustus.

City, school, county, township, state and national officers are to be chosen, and not until the legislature meets will San Mateo county electors know just how many offices they must fill.

Certain it is that the voters will cast ballots for a United States senator and congressman, a state governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state controller, attorney general, and for various candidates for judicial positions.

The list of county officials, however, depends on ratification of the charter amendments passed by San Mateo county voters at a special election last year, Augustus points out.

In any event, San Mateo county will elect a judge for department 1, superior court, the office now held by Judge Maxwell McNutt; supervisors from the second and fifth districts, offices now held by Fred E. Beer and James S. James, respectively; a sheriff; district attorney; assessor; controller; superintendent of schools; county clerk and five justices of the peace.

If the amendments are certified by the legislature prior to the August primary, then San Mateo county will also elect a coroner and public administrator, a recorder, tax collector, engineer, treasurer, and county executive.

CITY ELECTIONS FIRST

First elections of the year will be those in 12 of San Mateo county's 13 incorporated cities on April 12.

First day to file nomination papers is February 11, last day March 12. Registration closes March 3.

Next come the school district elections on June 4. Nomination papers must be filed 15 days prior to the election, according to Pansy Jewett Abbott, county superintendent of schools.

The state primary election on August 30 has three dates important to voters and candidates alike, Augustus points out. He lists them as follows:

PRIMARY DATES TOLD

June 1—First day to file nomination papers.

June 25—Last day to file nomination papers.

Emerald Lake Club in Favor Of ROTC Unit

As discussion continued rife on the proposal to establish a military training course at Sequoia high school, the Highlands District Improvement Club Board of Directors announced here that it had gone on record in favor of the plan.

A resolution urging establishment of a Reserve Officers Training Corps in the school, as recommended by the American Legion, was passed at a session Monday night, Stuart W. Copps, secretary, said.

Discussion of the proposal at the meeting Tuesday afternoon of the Sequoia Parent-Teacher Association brought a decision to forego taking action on the question. Instead, it was decided, individual members should make known their stand to the high school board, which will consider the question again at its meeting January 21.

One of the school trustees is Secretary Copps of the Highlands District Club.

Copps announced also that new officers had been elected for the Emerald Lake organization. A. T. Smith is new president; Furber Libby, first vice president; John T. Lawrence, second vice president, and Copps, secretary-treasurer.

Other directors are Alexander Bell, W. A. Ebner, Matthew A. Harris, Louis A. Humason, Don Kauffman, George H. Lent, A. D. McBryde, E. A. Michel, John E. Mullen, A. W. Pike and Richard Tum Suden.

Confession Clears Davies

David Matthews, 27, who confessed Monday to beating and outraging Mrs. Mabel Hawthorne March, 50, actress and choir singer in her San Francisco hotel room a week ago, according to police was being held in jail in the bay city today.

The confession clears Frederick Davies, alias Fred Davis, 37, arrested in South San Francisco for beating a hotel manager. He was listed as a suspect in the San Francisco crime.

Davies, a four-time loser, was sentenced to six months in the county jail on a battery charge by Judge William H. Dinning in South San Francisco Saturday.

Stanford May Share In Research Funds

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan. 10.—That Stanford University may share in the benefit of the $10,000,000 Sloan Foundation for research and economics was indicated today by the visit of Howard Sloan, who conferred with Pres. Ray Lyman Wilbur and faculty members concerning administration of the foundation, established by his brother, Alfred P. Sloan Jr., chairman of the board of directors of General Motors.

The conference is one of a series Sloan is conducting with university leaders, Dr. Wilbur said. The Stanford group was informed that the foundation will be distributed chiefly to education institutions for research purposes.

Members of the political science, education, economics and business schools were at the conference.

Mayor Hives was asked to appoint a woman's committee to assist in the celebration.

75 Enjoy 'Y' Treasure Search

Seventy-five boys from Young Men's Christian Association clubs in San Mateo County participated in the treasure hunt conducted as the first activity of the year Saturday, with Norman Nevraumont as director.

After two and one-half hours of hunting and finding "treasures," the youths enjoyed a theater party, with Hal Honore, manager of the Sequoia Theater, donating 50 tickets and the committee on management for the "Y" providing the other 25.

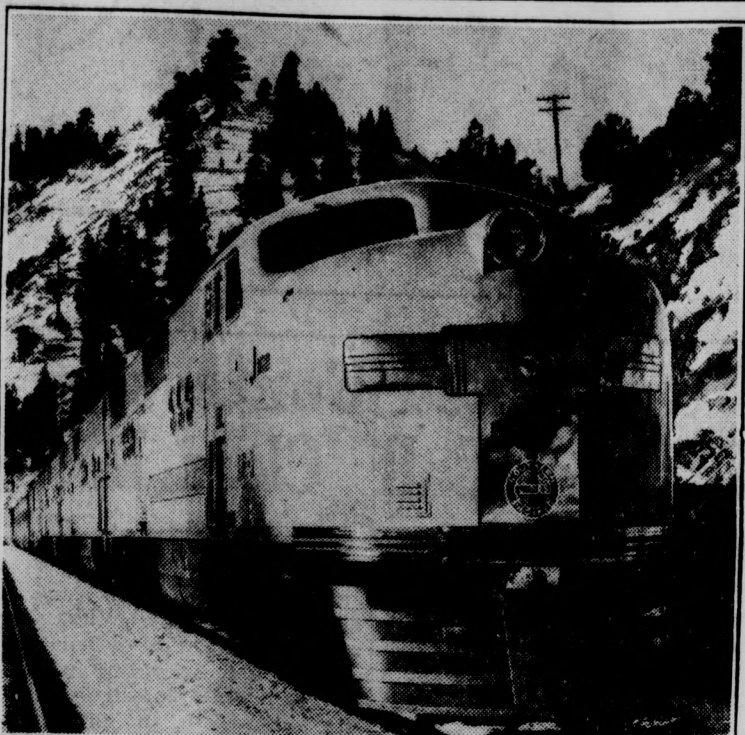

Co-operating with Nevraumont by donating prizes and time in arranging the hunt were the Peninsula Store, King's Repair Shop, the A. J. Weiss Men's Furnishings Store, Mrs. Edith M. Riese, Down's Bike Shop, the Sequoia Grocery, the May Walford Music and Art Studio, F. W. Woolworth Company, Sproule-Reitz Company, Lock Drug Company, James V. Wakefield of the Safeway Store and Andrew Spinas, superintendent of schools and chairman of the local "Y" committee on management.

To conclude the hunt, the "Y" boys went to the Camera Art Studio, where their pictures were taken in club groups.

A meeting of the county "Y" committee on management has been set for tonight.

LARGEST, MOST POWERFUL

The new 17-car 5400-horsepower streamliner "City of San Francisco," largest and most powerful in the world, which has just been placed in service by Southern Pacific, is shown passing over the snow covered Sierra. With a passenger capacity of 222, as compared to 170 on the old streamliner of the same name which it replaces, the new train is powered by a three-car Diesel-electric locomotive. It is owned and operated jointly by Southern Pacific, Union Pacific and Chicago & North Western railroads, and makes the San Francisco-Chicago run in 39½ hours.

Standard gauge railways are 4 feet, 8½ inches wide. Pumice is a porous, froth-like, volcanic glass.

Station Plan Is Approved

Proposed construction of a new service station on the northeast corner of Hopkins avenue and El Camino Real was approved by the city planning commission Monday night, following application for a permit by a representative of the Associated Oil Company.

The city council must take action before the permit becomes effective, however.

Also favored by the commission was a request by Oleson & Son Motors to remove its used car lot located at James avenue and El Camino Real to Main street and Middlefield road, where their salesroom is stationed. This permit, too, must be finally approved by the council.

The set-back problems on lower James avenue and Harrison avenue were again laid over until a subsequent meeting, Chairman Henry Witt said.

Scandinavian Journey Described to Pupils

Her summer trip to the Scandinavian countries was described by Miss Ida Larson, McKinley Intermediate School teacher, when she appeared as speaker at the school's weekly assembly last week.

Introduced by Beth Childs, student body president, Miss Larson told of her trip to Scandinavia aboard a Norwegian boat which traveled so far to the north in making the passage that one was able to read a newspaper on deck at midnight in that area in which the sun is visible day and night for several months.

Schools, churches and the customs of the people of both Norway and Sweden were also described by Miss Larson, who declared that the people of Scandinavia lead a life very similar to that of Americans.

Building SAFETY Into Coast Highways

JOBS FOR 450 MEN SEEN IN NEW WPA SETUP HERE

County Engineer U. S. Marshall has started preliminary work on a two-year WPA project to provide employment for 450 men in San Mateo county. Marshall said he was preparing the program at the request of work-relief officials. Included, Marshall said, will be road and bridge construction, sewer construction, tree planting, park development, and construction of fire trails. Maintenance of Camp San Mateo at Memorial Park for 200 men will be included.

The board of supervisors has approved a project to employ 128 men to plant trees on state, county and city roads to beautify San

ARMSTRONG WINS AGAIN

Mateo county for the 1938 world fair. Included in the project is an item for maintenance for three years.

Marshall said that a program to plant 600 trees in the Emerald Lake district will start January 26. The project was sponsored by the Highlands District Improvement Club.

The WPA projects will include chlorinator buildings, a swimming pool, tables, fireplaces, amphitheaters and roads in Memorial Park; a nursery for the tree planting projects, roads, service buildings and picnic facilities at Thornton Beach Park; and a topographic survey of the south end of San Mateo county to aid Marshall in preparation of plans for sanitary sewerage and for drainage of the low lands.

Check Passer Is Liberated

Defendants in two superior court criminal actions won unconditional probate from Judge Warren V. Tryon Monday afternoon.

Robert F. Albright, 53, San Francisco, identified as driver of the car in the hit-run accident in San Mateo's death zone November 29 which struck and killed Charles Shaw, employee of the William Tevis stables, was admitted to two years' probation.

Mrs. Margaret Moyle, former East Palo Alto resident who was charged with passing fictitious checks, was admitted to probation for two years with a three-month jail term which was suspended.

John Treagle and Frederick H. Frick, charged with burglarizing a liquor store near Menlo Park December 2, were given until January 17 to plead when their case was called.

Thomas Hogan, Richard Perata, and Robert Malespina, Daly City youths charged with robbery, were given one more week in which to enter a plea.

Judge Tryon, of Del Norte county, is sitting in the local court during absence because of illness of Superior Judge A. R. Cotton.

Ex-Judge Buck Sees Life's End In Near Future

Ninety-one years old Tuesday, George H. Buck, who rendered San Mateo county a half-century of public service as district attorney and superior court judge, looked toward the end of life's trail with the content born of a life well spent.

"I am simply existing, now," Judge Buck told his visitors. "I feel that I am about to pass on. I can't expect to live much longer, for I haven't the vitality."

"I have no fault to find with any living man on this earth. The people of San Mateo county have treated me especially well."

The venerable jurist produced two scrapbooks, filled with treasured newspaper clippings gathered throughout his active life.

In them were stories of the famous cases and the famous men who paraded before Judge Buck, who for 42 years sat on the superior court bench.

There were stories of the famous Miller & Lux case of the early 90s, the Loren Coburn will case of 1899, the Hightower case which made history in 1921, the Roderick-Woodring well murder case, and the Flood estate contest.

There were more than memories in the old-fashioned home at 1231 Jefferson avenue. Telegrams, letters, flowers, telephone calls, and personal visits came from all parts of the state and nation.

Missing for the first time in many years was the big bouquet of roses that the late Mrs. Elizabeth Kneese always sent to the judge. Mrs. Kneese died last March.

"People are all right," said Judge Buck. "Sometimes they don't do right. They don't work hard enough. I've worked hard all my life."

"If I could live it over again, with what information I now have, I might do differently, but not much. The young men of today are doing all right—taken as a whole. My advice to them is 'don't talk too much, save your money, and stay on the job.'"

A living testimonial to the healthfulness of Redwood City's

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

EARTH-WAVES, set up by an earthquake, are of three types, two of which travel through the earth, while the third travels along the surface. Scientists know the speed with which these waves travel, and are able to determine the location of the quake

Debate Teams Named On Labor Question

Two affirmative and two negative teams to work on the question of compulsory arbitration of labor disputes have been named by Mrs. John D. Peck, debate adviser at Sequoia high school.

The first affirmative team includes Isabel Garcia and Robert Nixon; the second, Mary Lou Hawkins and Esther Colton. On the first negative team are Pierino Robbiano and Barney Olsen; on the second, Willis Rosser and Benny Iijima.

"Resolved: That the federal relations board should be empowered to enforce arbitration of all industrial disputes" is the official question for the coming spring term.

The department of labor was created in 1913.

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

Miss Evelyn M. Maloney, pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maloney, is the incentive for numerous parties lately. The young lady is to be married in the spring to Raymond H. Elchenberg of Redwood City.

Miss Maloney holds a position with the Bank of America at Redwood City while Mr. Elchenberg is employed at Hale Bros., San Francisco. Both young people are graduates of Sequoia Union High School, where their romance started a few years ago.

The first of a series of card parties will be given by Menlo Park Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, in the Central School at Menlo Park Thursday night, January 20. Playing will start at 8:30, score cards will be 25 cents, and the public will be welcome. Mrs. Lloyd Ryan is in charge of arrangements.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gainer was baptized last Sunday at the Church of the Nativity and was named Mary Johnne.

A dinner was given to friends, among them Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gregory, Oakland; Prof. and Mrs. Natwith, San Mateo, and many others from out of town.

Report that the duke and duchess of Windsor were to lease the Leon Douglass mansion here caused a furor among the citizens. Coming of the famous couple would certainly have been a big advertisement for Menlo Park.

Real estate operators began securing contracts on property, expecting ready sales before the arrival of the royal pair. Owners of the estate now deny any negotiations for the lease with representatives of the duke.

Scarcity of robins in the locality is taken as an omen that there will be a dry season. Usually at this time of the year the birds arrive from the north to feed on toyon berries, which are plentiful. The crop is exceedingly large this year.

Rev. Father Thomas McKeon, pastor of the Church of the Nativity, is preparing a large class for confirmation, to take place next spring.

Manager Wallace of the Menlo Park theater, in conjunction with American Legion Post 443, will offer special first run pictures in the theater January 27 and 28. At the regular meeting of Menlo Park American Legion Auxiliary Unit 443, held in Legion Hall, it was decided to hold a dinner the night of Monday, January 24. Mammie Bartjes, Elizabeth Lyon and Ethyl Casseretto are the committee in charge.

For the past week Mrs. W. H. Weeden has been confined to her home by illness.

Regular monthly meeting of San Mateo County American Legion Auxiliary, District 26, will be held in Daly City this evening at 8:15 p.m. Delegates are urged to attend.

Emma Roberta Lindquist is confined to her home with chicken-pox.

Italic type was first used in 1501 by Aldus Manutius, an Italian printer.
